

NEW HAVEN BALLET MONDAY BULLETIN: JUNE 8 2009

BRAVO!! to the Dancers, Teachers, Volunteers, Parents and all who made this year's Spring Performance and Discover Dance a great success. We survived dancers going down because of the flu, a faulty intercom system, and the stage monitor disappearing in the middle of the show. It's always amazing to me how well this weekend goes and how poised the students are on stage, given our very limited rehearsal time and the fact that we never have an opportunity to run the performance in order. The faculty in particular should be commended for the way they prepare and encourage our student dancers.

Lost and found items from the New Haven Studio Program will be available to pick up at the office beginning tomorrow. The New Haven Office will reopen Tuesday morning, June 9

A reminder that the video order forms are due by June 20th. You can download them directly from the newhavenballet.org web site in the Spring Performance, Discover Dance information box.

Photo information will be sent to you as soon as it's available.

Our stay-in-shape program starts tonight with the Open Division Beginner class from 6:30-8:00 at Danspace; No Intermediate/Advanced Class tonight.
